

The CAPTEL telephone is definately a PLUS...its easier for the hearing people to talk with us deaf people because they dont realize they are doing anything differently..which gets too confusing for normal hearing people. Should definately be on the MARKET!